Alice's is a little slice of bliss among the redwoods. It's a place where families, motorcyclists, hikers, Silicon Valley entrepreneurs, writers, musicians, locals, and visitors can all come together to enjoy a great meal. Whether you want gourmet burgers and sweet potato fries, one of our scrumptious scrambles, or homemade pie, you can find it here.

The building was originally constructed in the early 1900's as a general store to support the logging industry. A hub of local history, it served the area (then called "Four Corners") until the 1950's when it was turned into a restaurant.
